Boonah's first choice for local news

The Fassifern Guardian stands as a proud and enduring voice for the Boonah community, delivering reliable, locally focused journalism every Thursday.

Each weekly edition reflects the unique character of the Fassifern Valley, where a strong rural economy thrives alongside innovative light industries drawn to the region's close proximity to Brisbane and the Gold Coast.

The paper showcases how the area offers the best of both worlds—convenience to major centres and the benefits of a relaxed rural lifestyle.

Tourism is an increasingly important part of the Shire's identity, and the Guardian plays a key role in highlighting its many natural attractions.

From the tranquil waters of Lake Maroon and Moogerah to the breathtaking bushwalking and sightseeing opportunities within the World Heritage-listed national parks along the Great Dividing Range, the region's beauty is front and centre.

Having served the community since Federation, The Fassifern Guardian continues to champion local issues, celebrate achievements and keep residents informed and connected.
